Dear Bill:

My colleagues and I are indebted to you for a stimulating and provocative discussion of "A Conservative's View of Human Rights and Foreign Policy." As you could no doubt tell from the responsiveness of the audience, your address was enthusiastically received. You might be interested to know that, in addition to those in the auditorium, an almost equal number watched via closed-circuit television.

I share the pleasure of our employees in having had the opportunity to hear you. I look forward to the February publication of Who's On First.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER
